American Land Title Association Awards Lake Charles Resident National Title Professional Designation

Washington, D.C., November 19, 2013 — The American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry, has awarded John (Jack) F. Robichaux of Lake Charles, Louisiana, a National Title Professional (NTP) designation.

The National Title Professional (NTP) Designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

“It is an honor to award Jack with a National Title Professional designation,” said ALTA president Rob Chapman. “Jack’s dedication to the title industry is admirable. This designation is evidence of his experience, commitment, and hard work.”

Jack is a Member/Manager at Robichaux, Mize, Wadsack & Richardson LLC/Ironclad Title, LLC in Lake Charles. He has been a board member of the Louisiana Land Title Association since 2004 and served as president from 2010-2011. He also serves as a member of the House of Delegates of the Louisiana Bar Association, ALTA’s Government Affairs Committee and the Notary Study Committee for the Louisiana State Legislature. He is also a member of the Southwest Louisiana Title Examiners Round Table and the Southwest Louisiana Realtors Association.

The designation has several elements, including industry and compliance prerequisites and training requirements. To apply for the NTP designation and for more information, please visit ALTA's NTP website.

About ALTA

The American Land Title Association, founded in 1907, is the national trade association representing nearly 4,800 title insurance companies, title agents, independent abstractors, title searchers, and attorneys. With offices throughout the United States, ALTA members conduct title searches, examinations, closings, and issue title insurance that protects real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.

*Designation under the National Title Professional Program solely demonstrates that a land title professional has met the particular standards and criteria of the National Title Professional Program. Neither the American Land Title Association, nor the designation itself, guarantees or warrants anything beyond a designee’s ability to meet such standards or criteria. The American Land Title Association makes no representations, warranties, or guarantees as to, and has and assumes no responsibility for the proper performance of land title services, including but not limited to the transfer of real property, or related services provided by designees.
