ALTA President Elect Steven G. Day Receives National Title Professional Designation

Washington, D.C., March 7, 2017 —Steven G. Day, ALTA's president elect, has been awarded a National Title Professional (NTP) designation from the American Land Title Association (ALTA), the national trade association of the land title insurance industry. Day is the second NTP designee from New York and joins 70 other industry leaders from around the United States who have earned the professional designation.

The designation recognizes land title professionals who demonstrate the knowledge, experience and dedication essential to the safe and efficient transfer of real property.*

"Steve has served our industry for more than 30 years and I am consistently impressed with his passion for the land title insurance business," said ALTA President Daniel D. Mennenoh ITP, NTP. "Steve's commitment to ALTA and our industry is crucial to our continued success. I'm proud of Steve's designation as an NTP and encourage more title professionals to apply for this esteemed designation."

Steve Day is executive vice president and division manager for Fidelity National Title Group. In that capacity, he has management responsibility for the direct, agency and commercial title operations in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions.

Prior to assuming his current position in 2010, Day served as regional manager for the Northeast Region of the Fidelity National Title Group. Since joining the company in 1986, he has held a variety of positions including Rhode Island state counsel and Rhode Island state manager for Chicago Title, as well as New Jersey state manager for both Chicago Title and Ticor Title's direct and agency operations.

A full directory of National Title Professionals is available here.

The designation has several elements, including industry and compliance prerequisites and training requirements. To apply for the NTP designation and for more information, please visit ALTA's NTP website.

About ALTA

The American Land Title Association, founded in 1907, is the national trade association representing more than 6,200 title insurance companies, title and settlement agents, independent abstracters, title searchers, and real estate attorneys. With offices throughout the United States, ALTA members conduct title searches, examinations, closings, and issue title insurance that helps protect the property rights of millions of American homebuyers every year.

*Designation under the National Title Professional Program solely demonstrates that a land title professional has met the particular standards and criteria of the National Title Professional Program. Neither the American Land Title Association, nor the designation itself, guarantees or warrants anything beyond a designee's ability to meet such standards or criteria. The American Land Title Association makes no representations, warranties, or guarantees as to, and assumes no responsibility for, the proper performance of land title services, including but not limited to the transfer of real property, or related services provided by designees.
